GOVERNMENT BILL 20

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO COMPREHENSIVELY REVISE THE STATUTES OF THE ASSOCIATION OF STUDENT GOVERNMENTS RELATING TO THE ASSOCIATION OVERALL

---

Short Title: Association Statute Reforms Chapter 1 “The Association” (Public)

Sponsored by: Association President DOUCETTE (corresponding)

First Reading: November 21, 2008

Version Date: November 22, 2008
(Committee Substitute 1)

1 WHEREAS, the governing documents of the UNC Association of Student Governments have 2 not been revised in any meaningful capacity in several years; and,
3

4 WHEREAS, in recent years the Association has endured a number of unnecessary and wholly 5 avoidable controversies that have heavily eroded its public image, several 6 attributable in large measure to the Association’s governing documents that are in 7 various parts inconsistent, ambiguous, vague, meaningless and otherwise 8 providing a poor organizational framework for the Association to accomplish its 9 objectives; and,
10

11 WHEREAS, in each of the three preceding sessions of the Association, ad hoc committees of 12 various sizes and compositions have been established to review the governing 13 documents of the Association and recommend changes; and,
14

15 WHEREAS, these ad hoc committees have all categorically failed to provide any meaningful 16 results in a timely fashion, often issuing ill-conceived recommendations mere 17 hours prior to the adjournment sine die of the session; and,
18

19 WHEREAS, the continued failure of the Association to modernize its governing documents 20 places it in very clear danger of losing the operational autonomy that has enabled 21 it to pursue its mission to “champion the concerns of students, and ensure 22 affordability and accessibility to quality education today and tomorrow”; and, 23

24 WHEREAS, recognizing this risk, during the summer months the various recommendations of 25 these previous ad hoc committees were reviewed along with existing governing 26 documents, and synthesized into a new Association Constitution proposed by the 27 Association President and ratified at the August 2008 meeting; and, 28

29 WHEREAS, with a new, flexible framework now in place, the Association can begin to 30 establish appropriate regulations governing the various aspects of its regular 31 operations; now, therefore, be it
